BOXING DAY RACES AT MORPHETTVILLE RACECOURSE

Monday December 26 is the Adelaide Galvanising Boxing Day Family Day at Morphettville Racecourse; set to be the ideal post-Christmas family outing.

The racing highlight of the day is the Adelaide Galvanising Christmas Handicap; a Listed Race worth $80,000 that has attracted an even line up of twelve runners.

South Australian Jockey Club (SAJC) Chief Executive Officer, Brenton Wilkinson says, "Heading the weights are last years winner Shekinaar, and The Eighth Maker and Outlandish Lad who fought out the finish of the City Of Marion Stakes recently."

The eight race program kicks off at 12.37pm, with the the Adelaide Galvanising Christmas Handicap to be run as Race Seven at 4.17pm.

"There is plenty of great entertainment lined up for the children, with rides, face painters, free giveaways, and a special appearance by both Diego, and Dora the Explorer. It will be a fantastic day out for young and old," says Brenton.

"A reminder too that there will also be races on at Morphettville Racecourse on Christmas Eve, with Saturday's eight race program commencing at 12.25pm."

So come be part of the action at Morphettville Racecourse over the Christmas weekend, and enjoy the atmosphere, activities, and of course the races.

General admission to the Adelaide Galvanising Boxing Day Family Day costs only $10 for adults, $5 for concession, and free for Children under 18.
